Helpful preparation hint: see www.lectorprep.org.

- Pronunciation guide with audio file: www.netministries.org/BBasics/bbbott.htm.
- * When a Deacon is scheduled to serve, usually a Lector only (i.e., no Commentator) is assigned to provide the welcome in addition to Proclamations of the Word.

NOTES:

1. The first name identifies the Lector; the second name identifies the Commentator.
2. As assigned, all Commentators and Lectors should be present in the Sacristy a minimum of 15 minutes before the time of the Mass.
3. In the absence of a Cantor, the Lector will read the Responsorial Psalm. The Gospel Acclamation will be omitted unless either the Lector or the Commentator can sing well enough to lead the Assembly in singing the Gospel acclamation.
4. The introductions to the readings shall be done exactly as presented in the Lectionary.
5. The announcements are read by the Celebrant; the Cantor announces all the hymns.
6. Please check in with the Sacristy when you attend Mass on your "off" days to see if you might be needed. In the past, emergency replacements have been drafted at the last minute and cantors have had to double as commentators. Not acceptable! This ministry requires a commitment to professionalism."

God bless† you for all you do!
